That is the news brought to this city by a close a personal friend as Col. McGraw has.

The deal for the McGraw properties in West Virginia is practically closed. It will be in New York within the next few weeks. It involves in the neighborhood of $4,000,000, and out of the transaction with the eastern syndicate, which has, it is stated, already advanced $600,000, Col. McGraw will issue forth with something close to $1,000,000 for his own.

Virginia Military Institute at Lexington to Erect a Hall to the Hero's Memory.

Word comes from the historic town of Lexington that a memorial hall is to be erected at the Lexington Military tion at once. He is under bond of $25,000 to complete the structure by September 1, 1916.

The building is to cost $89,642,45, Jt will cover an area of sixty by 120 feet, will be constructed of brick, and will be three stories high, exclusive of the basement. The auditorium will have a seating capacity of 1,415. The furnishings will bring the total cost to about $100,000. A seat many changes are to be made in the grounds at the institute. Other laws building the are to be made in the grounds at the institute. Other large buildings, including an alumni hall, will be built, three new officers' houses have already been erected of the character of the other buildings, although somewhat less Victorian in style, but at the same time harmonizing with the general architectural scheme.

In addition to larger and better parade and drill grounds, it is the intention of the board of visitors to construct a broad boulevard connecting the institutte with the grounds of the Washington and Lee University, Bertsam Grosvenor Goodhne, of New York, is in charge of the architectural plans.
